Dear Brother Knights:

This newsletter is going to look more like a THANK YOU card than a newsletter, because of all the events we took place in, in the past two months. Starting with the Priest's Golf Outing. Henry Berling headed up a nice day for about forty Priests' and Deacons. A good time was had by all. THANKS Henry and everyone who helped including a few Brothers from the Grey Eagle Council.

Next we had a float in the Sinclair Lewis Days Parade, THANKS Ken Ritter and the ladies from Dianna Nelson's home, good job.

Rich Orth had some ideas for repairs and additions to the fair bingo stand. With the hard work from Ken Dirkes, it came to be. THANK YOU Ken. Also THANK YOU to Rich Orth for putting together the schedule for the FAIR BINGO. Thanks to everyone that worked shifts, especially those that worked multiple shifts. Not to be forgotten are the wives that came in and worked shifts their husbands couldn't. We took in $ 4705.31. GREAT job done by all.

Lastly lets not forget our largest fund raiser to date that I know of, the HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL RAFFLE. Even though we did not sell all 250 tickets, we were able to donate $11,500 to Holy Family School. THANK YOU to all that sold and or bought tickets for this fund raiser, we should be proud of ourselves.

Winners of the raffle were as follows: Joe Eibensteiner-$5000, Robert Polipnick Sr.-$2500, Jim & Rosie Miller-$2000, Ed Schneider-$1500, Ralph Inderrieden-$1000, Ron Reuter, John Olmscheid, Wayne Reuter, Becky Eibensteiner, and Dennis Primus-$100 each.

I would also like to THANK Brian Gill for editing the newsletter for the past years. We have decided to run everything through MAIN STREET PRESS. With this change I have asked Brian to take a look at our website, and he agreed. There will be more to come on that.

Now for some business. Our next meeting is September 8th and will start at 7:00 p.m. with installation of officers. ALL OFFICERS should be in attendance. If you have an officer's jewel and ribbon, PLEASE bring it to the meeting.

SEPTEMBER 11th is the anniversary of the attack on the World Trade Center and Pentagon. Please remember to pray for all who suffered and died related to these terrible acts.

We will be doing ROAD DITCH CLEANUP on Sept. 21st, starting at Barry's Electric and heading two miles south to Felling Dairy. We need all the help we can get, the more helpers the less time it takes. It would be nice to see some new faces.

In Christ name,
Grand Knight

Dear Brother Knights,

I hope that this letter finds you and your families doing well. I have recently been asked to share a few thoughts each month for the newsletter, and I have gladly accepted.

I would simply like to share with you my appreciation for the Knights of Columbus and all that you do for the area churches, the school, and the community as a whole. Most recently you had shown great support of Holy Family School with a most generous gift after a very successful raffle. There were members who certainly went above and beyond the call of duty in selling these tickets. Thank you to all of you who made this possible.

Today, August 25, as I write this short memo, I call to mind King St Louis IX of France whose feast day it is today. St Louis was a man of great power and authority, yet never forgot that he was a servant of Jesus Christ. He fed the poor, washed the feet of homeless, helped the lepers, built homes for the blind, and made safe place for reformed prostitutes. He was faithful to the Lord's call to minister to the lower and forgotten. His life should be an inspiration to all of us as men. St Louis, Pray for us.

God bless,
 Fr. Theis
