Dear Brother Knights:

I hope everyone had a Happy Thanksgiving and were able to spend time with family and friends.

The Holiday season is upon us, we should remember in our hearts, giving is better than receiving. There are a lot of people in our area that would really appreciate some of our time, love, and fellowship. Please remember them now and always.

Also if you had a bucket list of what you were going to get done this year I think you better get at it. Don't forget to include our Lord.

I would like to Thank all the Brother Knights and families that took time on Dec. 1st for the Light -Up for Christ Lighting of the Nativity Scene. I would also like to Thank Richard and Mary Ann Orth for providing a place for us to gather after the Lighting.

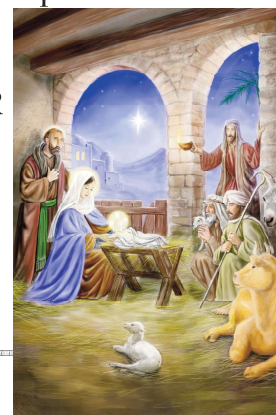

Another Thank You to Jim and Christy Flowers, BLUE DOOR STORAGE, for donating a storage unit for us to put items in. These were in the basement of St. Paul's Church and later kept at Joe Eibensteiner's. Also Thank You Joe and Becky for doing this for the past years.

The Free Throw Contest date has not yet been set. We will try to get in contact with those of you that have helped in the past. Also if you are interested in helping let Dennis Boeckers, or one of the officers know. You can also note phone numbers have been posted next to all of the officers names.

MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY NEW YEAR

In Christ name,

Grand Knight Duane Vornbrock

Greetings brothers,

I hope that you and your families are doing well as we find ourselves in Advent. In the midst of Black Friday and all of the hustle and bustle leading up to Christmas it is important to take time to recall the nature of this season. Advent refers to a coming or an arrival. In addition to waiting for the coming of the Christ Child on Christmas day, there is also another coming that we should be preparing for. Jesus came to us as a babe in the manger to deliver us from certain doom by way of His cross. He will come for us again in the Second Coming where He will judge the living and the dead. Thus Advent has a somber tone as we are reminded to be constantly vigilant in preparation for this event. This is why we use the color violet during this season. Its use signifies preparation, penance, and sacrifice. As men and leaders it is important for us to provide a strong example for those around us. I am, therefore, encouraging all of you to attend one of the penance services that will be offered over the course of the next three weeks. This is an excellent opportunity to open yourselves to the grace of God, and to be strengthened by Him to face all of your daily challenges. God bless,

Fr Theis
