Vol. 57, No. 7

Dear Brother Knights:

I would like to thank the brothers and a special THANKS to Mary Boeckers who were able to help at the Regional Free-Throw Contest this year.

With Lent already started, how are you doing with your fasting and abstaining? These small sacrifices pale in comparison to what Jesus gave for us.

Springfest is coming early this year. It is on Sunday March 6th at Holy Family School. Come out and support the school. It is always a lot of fun.

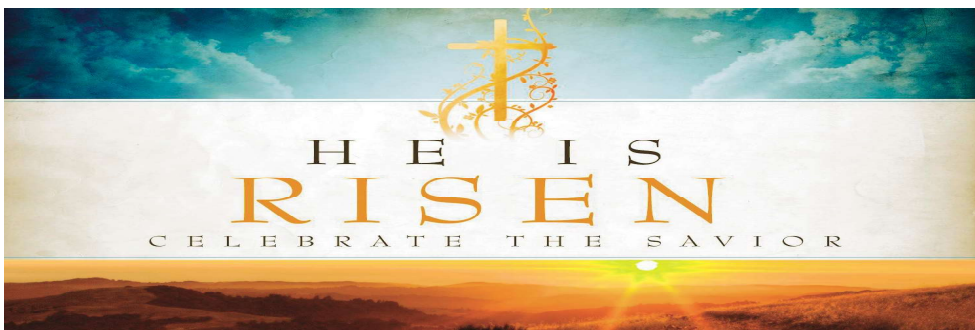

Father Kleinschmidt's birthday is March 22nd. Send a card, he will certainly appreciate the gesture. Father has done a lot for the Knights of Columbus.

We are tentatively planning on having a mass for the unborn on Monday, April 4th which is the Feast of the Annunciation. We will pray rosary at St Alexius in West Union at 6:30 p.m. Then will have Mass for the unborn at 7:00 following the rosary. Watch your church bulletin for more information.

We are trying to get a roster of candidates together for council officers. Please step up, give me a call or one of the other officers.

In Christ name,

Grand Knight Duane Vornbrock

In the Gospel proclaimed during the third Sunday of Lent, Jesus told a story about a tree that did not bear fruit. The owner wanted to cut the tree down, but the gardener asked for more time to cultivate the ground around the tree and fertilize it so that it be allowed another chance to bear fruit. There are many things that go into our bearing fruit, but as water is absolutely basic in the growth of plants, so too is prayer in our growth in holiness.

The Necessity of Prayer

“PRAYER places our mind in the brightness and light of God, and exposes our will to the heat of heavenly love. There is nothing that so effectually frees our understanding from its ignorance, or our will from its depraved affections, as prayer. It is the water of benediction which causes the plants of our good desires to grow green and flourish. It cleanses our souls from their imperfections, and quenches the thirst of passion in our hearts.”

—St Francis de Sales

God bless,

Fr Theis
