Vol. 57, No. 8

Dear Brother Knights:

First, even though it is past, I would like to wish all our brothers and their families a blessed Easter. I hope all were able to get together with their families.

Now, to all the brothers and Patti Kulzer that were on hand to help with BINGO at Springfest, THANK YOU. It is nice to see our brothers wives help out on some of our projects, they are always welcome. A good time was had by all and we took in some pretty good money for the school.

We have several things coming up this month of which we need our brothers participation. First is the Tootsie Roll Drive. We will have brothers at the exits of all churches after all masses on April 30th and May 1st, at Westside Liquor, Coborns, and Fleet Supply on April 29th, 30th and May 1st. Please get a hold of John Sells or Ken Ritter for a shift if you are able to help.

We will be doing the Roadside Clean-up south of Sauk Centre on Hwy 71. Lots of help makes this a pretty easy task. We will set a date when we see what the weather does.

Sunday April 10th the Holdingford Council is hosting a Chicken and Ham Dinner, at the Pelican Lake Ballroom from 3:30-7:00 p.m. If you have time, go over and support them.

Also coming up May 1st is Father Paffel's Birthday. Send him a card or stop in and wish him a HAPPY BIRTHDAY, I'm sure he would appreciate it.

In Christ name,

Grand Knight Duane Vornbrock
