Dear Brother Knights,

I would like to welcome our new Knights to our Council, Ken Gieske and Kurt Kampsen, also Jay Backowski who transferred from Osakis. God keeps blessing us with high quality men!

I would like to invite the Knights, young and old alike to come to our memorial mass for our brother Knights who have died in the past year. This will be held at 7pm on Nov. 15th at St. Paul's Church. We will start the rosary at 6:30. Please try to make it as it is the least we can do for one of our own! When a fellow Police Officer dies, you see how there brotherhood comes to the funeral. We should do the same! And we will do the same when you die!! So come, bring your family and turn on your love for the family of Bob Peters, John Tegels and John Jennissen, The Knight who have passed away in the last year. After mass, you are invited to come down stairs for coffee, brownies and ice cream. I am looking forward to seeing you there.

On Dec. 18th, our Council will host a breakfast. We will serve pancakes, French toast, eggs, ham and sausage. The proceeds will go to Religion Vocations. It will be good!! We are looking for a manager or co manager for the breakfast committee. If you are good around the kitchen, please call me at 320-333-7129. We will also be needing servers and helpers in the kitchen, about 40 guys, so if you can help for 2 hours on a Sunday morning, please call. It is a good way to building our community and serve God by funding the people who work for Him! May conflict with the Vikings game, but they have not been playing vey well lately! Remember the old saying, Charity is what real men are mad of(1st degree).

Father Greg's message continued from other side

When we meditate on the Mysteries of the Rosary, we think deeply about the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. We don't just announce the mysteries. We ask questions of them like, "Why did the angel visit Mary?" "Was Jesus' death on the Cross really for me?" "Why did Jesus crown his mother in heaven?" Our minds search for deeper meaning in the primary events of the life of Jesus.

Have you ever lost your place praying the Rosary? Was it due to tiredness or distraction? Or was it sometimes because you lost the track of time due to resting in the Spirit of the Lord? Resting with God is a good thing. And it should lead us to be more eager to do his will. That is contemplative prayer.

St. John Chrysostom challenges us! "Whether or not our prayer is heard depends not on the number of words, but on the fervor of our souls." (CCC #2700) Lets rethink how we pray the Most Holy Rosary. It is a weapon to win souls for Our Lady and Our Lord.

Long live Christ the King!

In our Father's hands,
:) Fr. Greg Paffel

Dear Knights of Columbus:

Last month I mentioned, “the real weapon of the Knights is and always has been the Most Holy Rosary.” It taps into the wealth of wisdom and power of God. And though repetitious, the rosary is a versatile way of prayer.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us there are three basic expressions of prayer: vocal, meditation, and contemplative prayer. If we pray it well, the rosary uses all three expressions. Vocal prayer uses words to express the heart. Meditation is a quest of the mind to understand the mysteries of our faith. And among other things, “Contemplative prayer is the poor and humble surrender to the loving will of the Father in ever deeper union with his beloved Son.” (CCC #2712)

We vocally say (with our lips or in our heart) the Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be and other prayers in the Rosary. But do we believe them? Are we reaching out to the Lord with our words? Or do we say the words mindlessly? This will make the difference between boring repetition and peaceful prayer.
